JavaScript Assignment 2

JavaScript Assignment 2

Question 1: Write a JavaScript Program to print "Hello LearnVern" through an alert box and add appropriate single line/multiline comment which provides description about the alert box.

Question 2: Write a JavaScript Program and follow steps mentioned below:
1. Create a global variable "x".
2. Store any numeric value to x and print.
3. After printing the value, store any string value to x and print.
4. After printing the value, store any boolean value to x and print.

JavaScript Assignment 2

Question 3: Write a JavaScript program and create an array of fruits that consists of minimum 5 fruits that you like. Alert all the fruit values stored in the array.

Question 4: Write a JavaScript program and create an object that has below mentioned properties. Store values to the properties.
1. firstname
2. lastname
3. age

once you store the values to the object properties, print statement using the object and the properties.
"The person (full name from the object) having age (age from the object) is a kind hearted one."

JavaScript Assignment 2

Question 5: Write a JavaScript program and perform below mentioed operations:

1. Store two numeric values in variable x and y.

2. console addition of x and y.

3. change value of x to numeric 8 and y to string "8" and check using "==" and "===" operators.

4. check type of x and y through console.

5. if x or y are true, console statement "Welcome to LearnVern".